In The Fall of Marigolds, I love the strong themes including: living and loving again after a traumatic event, what we risk when we choose to love, hope for the future after a loss, destiny or God's purpose in life, those in-between places, choosing love, the heartiness of marigolds, and the strength of survivors. This is one of those books that after reading the last page, I sighed and thought "That was a good story."
