The World of Business | The New Yorker

The distinction and high society of New York City in the Jazz Age is the central focus of the New Yorker business magazine template. The font is a major contributor to this effect, but the tone of the photographs, mostly in a sophisticated black and white, also bring the spirit of New York to life. Also of note is the way the two fonts work together to recall the a certain time without being too heavy-handed.

I love the New Yorker, but beware of Amazon's Lightning Deal '$5.00 for 12 issues' - the subscription automatically renews at the end of the three month period, charging you $99.00 for 12 months. They do send an email notifying you of this but it is easy to get buried in all of the marketing emails Amazon sends out.
